Range Officer Duties.

Safe Procedures at the range.

Club Rules establish the organization, responsibilities, rules and procedures to safely conduct recreational and sporting use of archery and firearms at the club, and to coordinate these activities with club use. Administration and control of the club ranges is as follows:

Range Officer-an individual who assume responsibility of the range.

When conducting the duties a Range Officer will use the following as a safety checklist and job description:

Make sure the range is clear of hazards.

That the action of any firearm must be open at all times except when actually being shot on the range.

Ensure that firearms are handled only at the firing line.

That no firearm is to be loaded until the range officer gives the command "The Range Is Active".

Upon the command "Cease Fire," all firing stops at once, firearms are unloaded, actions are opened and firearms laid on the shooting bench, muzzle pointing in a safe direction down range. Check firearms and confirm actions open, and no ammunition in breach. Magazines are removed, if possible, from the firearms.

During the cease-fire, no one will handle firearms, ammunition or equipment. Persons not engaged in changing targets down range should stand well behind the cease fire line.

A range Officer may ask someone to leave club property for violation of the Club Range Rules. If that person refuses to leave, the Range Officer may request the RCMP to remove this person from the club property. The Range Officer must report this situation immediately to the Range Chair (see website for contact ponokafishandgame.ca)

Range Commands

The basic range commands are as follows:

Cease-fire

MEANING: Unload your firearms, put them down on the bench and step back behind the firing line

The line is clear.

MEANING: You may now go forward and check your target. No firearm handling is allowed.

The range is active.

MEANING: Load and fire upon your own time, be sure to reinstall your hearing protection. Only the acting Range Officer is to issue range commands. This eliminates any confusion and maintains control on the range. In case of an emergency anyone can yell "Cease-fire".

PROVE your firearms safe means:

P – Point your firearm in a safe direction.

R – Remove all ammunition.

O - Observe the chamber.

V – Verify the feed path for ammunition, including the magazine.

E – Examine the bore for obstructions.

When you unload your firearm, you can just “PROVE” it safe

In case of an accident call 911 club address is: S/W-12-044-26-W4M
